“ Goodbye my old friend until we meet again
Goodbye my old friend it seems this is the end
But do not forget when you leave this place
You'll be back again with a different face
You might not remember and you might not be aware
But your place in my heart will always be there.
If we should meet again in passing or a park
Remember the feeling of my beating heart
As you laid your head upon my chest
Your sweet little face at rest
All the dreams you have I hope they are sweet Right until the very last beat
And when you go I'll be so sad
But I'll know that you'll be alright and I gave you everything I had You shared with me comfort and love
And I'll never forget you my sweet cuddle bug.

Dedicated to fluffy

“ I don't have any pics but We will all miss her.
She was such a sweet and loving dog. I think Vinny will miss her the most lol he also dreamed of a love that could never be. Mostly cause fluffy just wanted to run around with him and was completely oblivious. She was An amazing pup and we're all better for having had her in our lives.
