“ Bandit had such a big personality for such a little dog. It was impossible not to love him. Our family is heartbroken. I've added a picture of him being the best little assistant for working remote. This little guy is leaving a gaping hole in our family. We love you so much Banny.

“ So many happy memories with Bandit. We gave him his name long before we knew he would steal socks and shoes or anything he could grab. Single socks and nerf darts fill the backyard. He was my best friend and we did so much together. I love you puppy
