“ We are so sorry for the loss of sweet Bella!
I remember how she would jump on the back of the couch and lay on the floor and roll over so you can scratch your stomach when you would come to see her at your home!
She was very blessed to have you guys ad “ Today we lost our sweet, sweet Bella. She was 13-1/2 years old and the longest living dog we've ever had. Although she had congenital heart disease and had slowed down this last year, she was really fine until last night. She died this morning in her litt
