

Cooper "Monkey" Girard

September 21, 2008 - September 18, 2022

I will never forget the day Max and I drove downstate to buy a basset hound puppy; welcome Cooper Girard to our world, where he has left an imprint that will last forever in our hearts.

The most precious, sweet, furball I ever laid my eyes on and I can't imagine moving forward a day without his presence.

Cooper, known to his Dad and Brother, but most affectionately, Monkey, to his Mom. Ahhh so many nicknames for this handsome boy... Big C, Scoobert, Coop, Ice Coop, Lebrown; he was coop-underful, coop-tastic, and every other affectionate name, or term, we could give him.

Thousands of pictures, collages, screen shots, and videos.... because we simply adored him and couldn't get enough of his sweet face.

He hated the thunderstorms and fireworks, and always found a safe place with one of us to ride those out, usually hiding under our legs, as close as possible, or on my side of the bed, with one hand on him through the night. He loved his cookies and do not even think of shortchanging him; he would do his famous 'cookie-spin' for them if needed. He had his very own truck, he could hear it when my husband would start the engine, and he knew he was going for a ride. To see him perched on the passenger seat would positively warm my heart.

He became a 'big brother' 3 ½ years ago to Otis Girard, and boy, he was not happy about that. But, he grew to love him and Otis truly loved Cooper; they were a duo for sure, spending every day together.

There are no words to describe the gaping hole this leaves in our family. Coming home will never be the same without you to greet us.

Thank you for the years of unconditional love and laughs; you are our little grump-master and no one will ever take your place, in this home, in our hearts.

We love you dearly, Monkey, and we'll miss you forever; rest in peace sweet boy.
