“ It's heartbreaking to lose your best furry friend, but you gave her a Wonderful Life! She was happy and truly loved. Picture her now riding around on a huge cloud of your love. She was very special and so are you!

“ Lexie and Bandit said woof woof woof, they will miss Cotton. They loved the way Cotton would hop over to the gate to visit with them when the stopped by Jamie’s room to see her. She was very friendly. Hop around, Cotton!

“ Cotton is the sweetest bunny. Jamie was so happy to bring her home to our family. When Cotton was little, she could fit in one hand, but her ears were sooo huge!!! Cotton would love to play hop over the arm. She lived in a beautiful two-story hutch in jamie’s room. When it was bed time, cotton would jump into the bed for story time with us. When I stopped reading, she would nudge the book with her nose or head to make me turn the page and read more. I’ll admit she did eat a few books, but she never ate the pictures; she’d all around them. She had such a fun personality.💕

“ Cotton was the best bunny ever. I remember shortly after Cotton joined our family, we were having our picture taken for the church directory. Jamie thought it would be fun if we all wore bunny ears and Cotton was in the picture too. So that's what we did. It's a great picture! I love you little bunny!!
