“ Anne Marie, I'm so sorry for your loss of precious Henry. His soul is soaring because your love for him gave him the wings he needed to fly to the arms of the angels waiting to carry him across the rainbow bridge. We know when these precious angels come into our lives the day we dread will come. 💔
They make us better people. I believe our pets share Eternity and we will see them again.
Rest In Peace Henry. You were loved and cherished.

“ We are devastated to lose you, Henry. You were feisty, loving, spirited and always on guard. You've left a big empty hole in our hearts.

Oh Anne and Dick my heart hurts reading this. I know how much you loved your Henry. I will miss hearing of his escapades around the house. He may have gotten off to a rocky start upon his adoption but look what a beautiful, wonderful family member he became. He had a wonderful life with you, spoiled to the core with your gourmet meals and treats, but that's what he deserved. So Very sorry. My deepest sympathies. If you want to talk to an understanding ear, please give me a call. I am thinking of you All. Love, Cathy
