“ I can't believe you're gone , i remember when you were a puppy and I had to stay with tia Lilly for a while and we became best friends in just a short amount of time, you were such an amazing dog , i love when you would have zoomies around the back yard with you're back feet and butt low to ground but still going fast , i can't believe the last time I seen you would be the last , I'm happy I got to see your zoomies before you left us , I hope there's lots of teats and room for you to run . Thank you for all the memories, i love you jayda ☐❤️ you will be forever missed .

“ Jadda,

From the moment I met you and held you on my lap I knew you were going to be the perfect pet I could ever ask for.

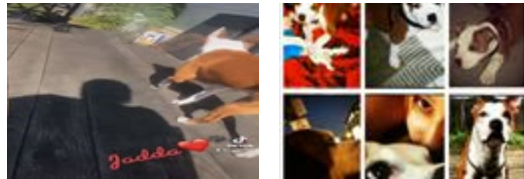

All my life I asked pa for a dog and he always told me no. So me and Johnny went out and got you on our own lol.

From that first moment I saw you, I knew I was going to love you so much! I knew that you were going to be by my side through every obstacle I could ever face. You kept by me when I felt alone. You stayed by my side when I needed comfort. You gave me all the joy I could ever ask for in my life. You were there for Baby Eli and protected him the same way you did for me. You were such a good dog I myself couldn't believe how did I get so luck to have a dog like you. You held me up when I thought I couldn't get through my hard days. You have left me with so many beautiful memories that I am going to cherish for the rest of my life. But what you left me with the most, was a heart full of love for a dog that I had asked for my whole life.

Now it's time for us to let you rest and finally be in doggy heaven.

You will always be my princess Jadda

I love you so much Jadda Baby ☐ 🐾

“ Thank you for the joyful memories. You were an amazing and smart dog. We will always love you and cherish the moments you gave us. You stood by our side thru all walks of life. From births to passings you were always waiting for us joyfully at the door to greet us. Now at your moment i pray the lord is standing at the door waiting to greet you into your new home. We love you forever and always Jayda!

“ I'll never forget the bundle of joy you were when you first came home and enjoyed playing outside in the sun.
