“ You were the sweetest cat, and best friend to all our dogs especially Lincoln. We were lucky to have you in our lives. You will be missed. Love, Jeanne, Lady, Anchor, and Lincoln

You turned out to be such a sweet little lady. When you first became apart of the family you would hide and it took us forever to find your hiding spot. We would turn the house upside down, when we finally discovered your hiding place... you were like game over and became the most loving, cuddly little lady. You loved your daily brush, your chin scratched and could sit in our lap for hours being petted. You turned a crazy German Shepherd into your friend with no issues. Rest easy and jump into Mame's arms our sweet Leah.
