

Marley Strickert

December 15, 2005 - January 7, 2026

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

SS

“ Susan Strickert lit a candle in memory of Marley Strickert

Susan Strickert - January 10 at 07:04 AM

SS

My dear sweet Marley, it's been a few days since you left us, and my heart is broken missing you. I know you are probably having fun playing with your fellow siblings that were waiting for you. Someday we will meet again, in the meantime your memory with us in our family will always shine in our hearts.

Susan Strickert - January 10 at 07:12 AM

DS

“ Marley always slept right beside, his younger sister Sadie.

David Strickert - January 10 at 12:33 AM

DS

Little Sadie passed away 2 years ago

David Strickert - January 10 at 12:35 AM

SS

Marley got along with all the family pups he had in his life. He was so sweet.

Susan Strickert - January 10 at 07:21 AM

DS

“ David Strickert sent a virtual gift in memory of Marley Strickert

David Strickert - January 09 at 10:54 PM

DS

We believe that Marley and all of our other pup's, up there in heaven, are given as many treats as they could ever want. So, this little bone is a representation, of our thoughts on this.

David Strickert - January 09 at 10:59 PM

“ 2 files added to the album Memories Album

Precious Pets Crematory - January 08 at 12:54 PM

“ 3 files added to the album Memories Album

Precious Pets Crematory - January 07 at 04:28 PM

SS

My dear sweet friend, it's so sad to say goodbye to you. You have been a complete blessing and you will always live in my heart. I can't express enough to anyone how your companionship and devotion to our family was remarkable in every way. I'll miss your kisses and cuddles, until we meet again at the rainbow bridge. Love you dear Marley, your "mommy human".

Susan Strickert - January 07 at 05:20 PM

LS

*I'm so sorry to hear about your Marley. Had an amazing life with you and Dave. I know how hard this is and will be going forward. Prayers for strength and know you did everything to make things comfortable for Marley. You guys are super loving parents. Hugs to you both. I know you'll have some rough days ahead. Reach out if you need to talk. They certainly take a piece of your heart with them.. Hugs ❤️
Glenn, Lauren, Neil and Evan*

Lauren Schmidt - January 07 at 05:31 PM

DS

*Marley was our dear, wonderful little guy.
He was such a smart, friendly and lovable little fellow.
We adored, and were very lucky to have had him, for these past 20 years.*

Me & Sue will truly miss his presence, the soft sounds of his little footsteps, and those warm, wet kisses on our cheeks.

He loved, and looked after his younger sister Sadie, who passed away a couple of years ago, from an internal infection, that took her so unexpectedly, and quickly.

*He also interacted well with, and was a big brother, to the much younger, 18 year's younger, Indiana Bones (Indy).
We weren't sure when we adopted Indy, how he might react to such a young puppy, but he graciously accepted his little puppy brother.
And Indy as a puppy, somehow sensed Marley's old age, and was never a bother to Marley at all.*

They both got along so perfectly and beautifully. Indy was always there, right by Marley's side, in the more recent weeks.

So we know, that Indy is mourning the loss of his brother now too.

*We were lucky and blessed, in having such wonderful doggies.
We don't just have dog's, they are a part of our family, and we interact with them as if they are little children.*

We believe, that our little Marley is in a very wonderful place now, with all of the other dogs. And someday, we'll all be reunited once again. It is these belief's, that provides comfort to us.

We will never forget you Marley, and you'll always remain very close-by, within our hearts. ❤️

David Strickert - January 09 at 02:33 PM