“ My Max, Maxie Boy, Moo moo, I had different pet names for you but you were my little prince. You didn't have one mean bone in your body. Always kind and affectionate to everyone. Our lives will not be the same without you. I didn't expect you to leave us soon soon. From the day we brought you home you lighted up our home. We did everything together including road trips and trips abroad. You took Dora under your wing when she was a little puppy, and she loved you so, so, much. She is lost without you. Not only are we sad to have lost you but we are sad for Dora who is devastated. As you were our angel on earth you are our angel in heaven. Watch over us my sweet boy. Until we see you again. Forever in my heart ❤️🙏😭

“ Max, The dogs have been my first love since I was a little girl and while I loved all my little dogs, you hold a unique place. You were the most special little guy and the best behaved most quiet little boy that I have ever had. Truly a little gentleman. I will miss you until I see you again! From Arkansas to that shelter in Indiana to your forever home with us in Chicago. You traveled all over with us to Italy, Germany, throughout the USA, and even to Elvis' home in Graceland. My heart is broken more than words can say and Dora is so heartbroken too because she was with you since she was an 8 week old baby, but I know you found Nanna again who also loved you so much. You were an angel here on earth and now you will be my angel from heaven! ❤️🙏 Please forgive me if i didn't do all I could do. Love, Celina
