“ To my Lil Mama Nina. Thank you for being a part of our family all of these years. Thank you for bringing us so much joy and laughter. I will miss you being part of our holidays, dressing up just like the rest of us in matching pajamas. I will miss you barking and chasing after a large dog with fearlessness, like a true diva. And last and certainly not least. Thank you for the love that my big sister Wendy had for you and the love you gave her in return. You are truly missed. Love always from Auntie Gina.

“ My Nina Bina I will truely miss you. I remember the day they brought you to the house you were soooo excited and full of life. You will forever be in our hearts 💕. You left a whole in auntie Wendy's heart that I don't think no other dog could fill. I'm just glade that she had good friend In you. Now you can be reunited with Derek. When you see him tell him we said Hi. Love you always

“ Nina my little Princess. There are no words to describe the ache I feel in my heart right now since you've been gone, I reach over to rub your little head and you're not there. I see you with your little paws on the bed, waiting for me to pick you up, and I will always remember how excited you would be to see me walk through the door with that furry little tail wagging. How can one little being bring so much joy into one person's life. You were my little pride and joy, and I will be forever grateful for the time that I've been blessed to have with you. I will love and miss you for the remainder of my life. We will be together again. Until then, rest my little Angel. ❤️❤️

Nina, you had the heart of a 180 lb. red nosed pit bull and the frame of a little stuffed animal and we loved you. Thank you for being such a blessing and companion to my mother. Rest well little angel.
