RILEY

Your life of 18 years was a

BLESSING

Your memory a

TREASURE

You are

LOVED

Beyond words

MISSED

Beyond measure

You no longer greet us,
as we walk through the door.
You're not there to make us smile,
to make us laugh any more.
Life seems quiet without you,
you were far more than a pet,
you were family member, a friend,
a loving soul we will never forget.
It will take time to heal,
for the silence to go away.

We still listen for you,
and miss you everyday.
You were such a great companion,
constant, loyal, and true.
Our hearts will always wear,
the paw prints left by you.

“ I remember when I first saw Riley at your place. I wanted him. You two were the best family forever family. That bond was special and he was spoiled like all fur babies should be. If I come back as a dog, I would choose you both. I love you guys and will always remember your sweet Riley! So sorry for your loss. He was the cutest dog ever. Love his picture.

“ Riley was a very important dog in my life. I was 16 and life wasn't the kindest to me however being greeted by that beautiful dog made for happy moments. I'm thankful to have known, pet, cuddled and walked such a lovely animal. Sorry for your loss, it's truly disappointing they can't live as long as humans. Thanks for including me in this time. We mourn together as family.

“ Riley. You were the coolest dude. I remember a few years ago it had been a while since I had came to visit. I walked in and you started whining because you were so happy to see me. We played with your stuffed animals that day. You were such a cool chill dude. You are missed and loved. I will remember you always. You were the only dog Arty tolerated for more than a second. Special in everyday. Until we meet again buddy!
