

Rosy Smit

May 6, 2006 - May 20, 2014

The moment I laid eyes on Rosy that fall afternoon in 2006 I knew she was special. I would have to say that if she had been human, she would have been my bosom buddy, my soul mate. And from that very first day we bonded. She followed me everywhere, loved to sit in my lap and slept next to me every night .

She had such a presence, was bossy, smart, athletic, beautiful, and could carry on a conversation with anyone willing to talk to her. She loved to play fetch; always returning with whatever toy you threw for her. She loved to toss her favorite toy, a black pipe cleaner formed into a loop with tails, up above her and catch it in midair. She always made us laugh. She also loved her buddy Sunny, taking afternoon naps with him on our bed, chasing around the house and sitting side by side looking out the patio doors.

My beautiful Rose, my sweet girl, you left us too soon. I dropped you off at the Vet for a surgery that became a tragedy and you were gone. I never got to say goodbye; I mourn you still after all these years.

Thank you My Rosy Posy for your unconditional love and laughs, you will always have a special place in my heart.

I loved you dearly and will miss you forever.
