Sadie, we know you are in a great place, and that you're getting all the treats that you want.

This little bone symbolizes, our thoughts & beliefs in this.

We also know that your older brother Marley, who just passed 2 days ago, is up there in heaven with you.

And the two of you, are having fun playing, with all of your cousin doggies, who came before you.

She'd often lay there like this, with just the tip of her little tongue out. It was so adorable.

“ We'll always cherish and have, the wonderful memories of you, our sweet, beautiful little Sadie girl.
From the very first moment that we met you, we knew you would be coming home with us.
And then when I held you in my arms, and you licked my face, you became "daddy's girl".

There will always be a void in our lives, without you here with us. We're sad, but we have the knowledge, that you're joyfully having lot's of fun, with all of "your cousin's". As they are the pup's who were ahead of you, and who were there to greet you at the rainbow bridge.

*And although our time on earth with you, wasn't long enough, we know that someday, we'll all be together again.
Enjoy your healthy, fun, and youthful eternal bliss, our dear sweet little, angel girl doggie!*

“ Our dear sweet little girl, you left us too suddenly, with broken hearts. Our "foxy"girl, with such a joyful curiosity about everything you saw. We will always cherish every memory, and you live in our hearts forever. We know you are in heaven and playing with your siblings that were waiting for you at the rainbow bridge. We'll see you again, someday,we love you.
