Sunny, my sweet, absolutely stunning, blue eyed little guy, you were such a special Birthday gift that cold January in 2005. These past seventeen plus years you've been my Sunny Bunny, Bun Bun, my good little boy kitty and after every bath I gave you, and there have been many, my little Fluffer Nutter!

You have lain next to me on the sofa every evening without fail; sat next to me on the chair at dinner and slept up against my legs at night, always with your motor running. As a kitten you loved to chase a ball, bat at feather wands, and had a great time trying to get your toys out of that funny looking toy box we bought you. When you became an old guy you loved to lay in the sun coming in the front door. For a second I think I still see you out of the corner of my eye in all your favorite spots. I miss your kisses and you tapping my leg for pets. We added Rosy to our family in 2006 because we thought you needed a companion. You eventually became buddies; taking afternoon naps together on our bed, chasing each other around the house and spending time looking out the patio door until Rosy passed away unexpectedly in 2014. You mourned her for months. But after a while you quite enjoyed being the only kitty.

I am grateful to have had you in my life all these years. I love you dearly Bun Bun and miss you so. You will have a special place in my heart forever.

*He was a beautiful kitty.
We know you're missing him so much. Your photos are so cute.
I especially love the one of him looking at himself in the mirror!
Thoughts are with you.
