“ Tom Hardy was the sweet rat that only wanted to explore and clean everything. He took care of Nora and she accepted it, which is saying something because she was very mean to anyone else (but I don't blame her). Tom would've made friends with a snake before fighting, and he had ears like flower petals (Hope's words, but perfect).

“ Always the sweetest and most affectionate rat, as amazing as that may seem. Never wanted to do anything other than run around the apartment and give kisses. I hope Nora is waiting on the other side of that rainbow bridge with so so many strawberries, little guy.
